

Oak Woodland Restoration Field Day

Klamath Siskiyou Oak Network (KSON) invites you to join restoration professionals, agency managers, wildlife biologists, and private landowners for a day in the field!

Learn about oak habitat conservation occurring in southern Oregon and northern California, as well as opportunities for restoration on private lands.

Saturday, June 27th
9am to 2pm

© James Livaudais 2015

© Kate Halstead 2015

© James Livaudais 2015

Topics will include:

- ❖ Oak restoration practices and approaches
- ❖ Oak conservation program opportunities for landowners
- ❖ Oaks as habitat for birds and other wildlife

This event will take place in the Colestin Valley between Ashland and Yreka, where a large scale private lands oak conservation partnership program has been occurring for the past decade.

This is a free event, but registration is required. To register, please contact Kate Halstead no later than June 19th at keh@klamathbird.org or (541) 201-0866 ext 7#. Directions will be provided or carpooling can be arranged from Ashland or Yreka.

